From the Desk of Mr. Poole

Dear Parents,

Important reminder that Monday, March 12, is a Professional Development Day for teachers and it will be a student holiday. I hope everyone makes the most of their day off!

We had a great evening on Monday as we hosted our Meet the Author Night. My thanks to everyone that had a hand in making this a very special experience for our families, including Culpeper County Schools for sponsoring this event at our school. After an entertaining presentation by master storyteller Barb Larson, families went to various classrooms to participate in games, crafts and other fun activities. It was a wonderful evening!
